[XXVth YEAR.] THE [No. 1290.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1770.

LONDON, March 22.

CAMPS for the Army are forming round the Town. There is to be one upon Blackheath, and another upon Hounslow-Heath. Theſe are fixed upon, and the others are in Agitation.

It is ſaid that John Ketch, Eſq; (in Imitation of a late ſpirited Reſolution of his Superiors) has declared his Determination to reſign his Office, rather than commit to the Flames a certain much talked of Paper.

We hear that a certain Lord has given it as his Opinion, that ſhould the Sheriffs refuſe to attend the burning the Remonſtrance of the City of London, by the Hand of the common Hangman, they ought to be immediately ſent to the T——r.

Some People report, that a Propoſal will be made in a certain Place, that Three great City Officers ſhould aſk Pardon of a great Perſonage for their Conduct reſpecting a certain Remonſtrance.

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, dated Feb. 24, 1770.

"As ſoon as General Stoffeln had beaten, on the 29th ult. the Body of Turks commanded by Auli Pacha, he cauſed the Fortreſs of Ibrailow directly to be inveſted, and made the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for beſieging it in Form. The Turks made all poſſible Reſiſtance on their Part, 'til the 3d of the preſent Month, when they endeavoured to make their Eſcape, and quit the Place without Noiſe. For this Purpoſe all the Garriſon embarked the following Night in Three Veſſels, with the View of croſſing the Danube by Favour of the Dark, and under a terrible Fire from all the Artillery; but in ſpite of theſe Meaſures the Turks were not able to conceal their Deſign from the Ruſſian General, who ordered ſome Cannon to be pointed towards the Shore, which had all the deſired Succeſs. For the Veſſels in which the Turks had embarked were ſunk to the Bottom, and the greateſt Part of thoſe on board drowned. The Remainder of the Garriſon continued ſtill to defend themſelves 'til the next Day (the 4th) when the Ruſſians gave the Aſſault at Midnight, carried the Breach, and put all they met to the Sword. They found in the Place more than a Hundred Pieces of Cannon, a conſiderable Sum of Money, and a very large Quantity of warlike Stores and Proviſions. The Turks, when they ſaw the Fortreſs loſt, ſet Fire to the great Magazine, with the Intention of blowing up both themſelves and the Ruſſians; but the latter being timely informed of it, ran up, and happily ſucceeded in extinguiſhing the Flames before it had reached the Powder Rooms. Among the Priſoners is Auli Pacha himſelf."

A Gentleman obſerved that the Miniſtry would not be able to put their Deſign of burning the Remonſtrance in Execution, unleſs they made uſe of Veſtal Fires; but it is well known that there is not chaſtity enough in a whole Levee to kindle ſuch a Fire.

They write from Vienna, that Camp Equipage for Ninety Thouſand Imperial Troops is getting ready with all Expedition, and it was given out, that Two numerous Armies would take the Field by the Firſt of May next.

March 24. A Correſpondent ſays, that the Doings and Undoings of a certain Aſſembly with Regard to the A——n Affairs, will (it is generally apprehended) terminate in the total Ruin of the Trade between the Coloniſts and their Mother Country.

It is whiſpered, that though the City Remonſtrance has proved ſo greatly inadequate to the End for which it was calculated, the preſent M——y will not long be able to retain their Power.

By a private Letter from Portſmouth, we are informed, that there is a very great Diſſention ſtill amongſt the Ruſſian Officers, inſomuch that 'tis thought, if conciliating Meaſures are not adopted by the ſpirited Commander in Chief, it will greatly retard the Expedition to the Mediterranean, ſeveral Expreſſes having been ſent to London on that Account to the Ambaſſador, who is indefatigable in removing every Obſtacle that tends to diſunite the Gentlemen on board that Fleet.

A Correſpondent informs us, that a Remonſtrance from the City of York will be delivered to his M——y in the Courſe of next Week.

It was this Morning current, that a Proteſt of the Minority in both Houſes, againſt certain late Proceedings, will ſoon take Place.

"Die Jovis, 22 Martii, 1770.

"Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

"WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons of Great-Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, having taken into Conſideration the Addreſs lately preſented to your Majeſty, under the Title of "The humble Addreſs, Remonſtrance, and Petition, of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery, of the City of London, in Common-Hall aſſembled," together with the Anſwer which your Majeſty was pleaſed to make to the ſame, think ourſelves indiſpenſibly obliged, upon this Occaſion, to expreſs to your Majeſty the extreme Concern and Indignation which we feel at finding that an Application has been made to your Majeſty, in Terms ſo little correſponding with that grateful and affectionate Reſpect which your Majeſty is ſo juſtly entitled to from all your Subjects; at the ſame Time aſperſing and calumniating one of the Branches of the Legiſlature, and expreſly denying the Legality of the preſent Parliament, and the Validity of its Proceedings.

To preſent Petitions to the Throne, has at all Times been the undoubted Right of the Subjects of this Realm. The free Enjoyment of that Right was one of the many Bleſſings reſtored by the Revolution, and continued to us, in its fulleſt Extent, under the Princes of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe: And as we are duly ſenſible of its Value and Importance, it is with the deepeſt Concern that we now ſee the Exerciſe of it ſo groſsly perverted, by being applied to the Purpoſe, not of preſerving, but of overturning the Conſtitution, and of propagating Doctrines, which, if generally adopted, muſt be fatal to the Peace of the Kingdom, and which tend to the Subverſion of all lawful Authority.

Your Majeſty, we acknowledge with Gratitude, has ever ſhewn the moſt tender Regard to the Rights of your People, not only in the Exerciſe of your own Power, but in your Care to preſerve, from every Degree of Intringement or Violation, the Powers intruſted to others. And we beg Leave to return your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for the freſh Proof you have now given us of your Determination to perſevere in your Adherence to the Principles of the Conſtitution.

Permit us alſo to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with the higheſt Satisfaction we ſee your Majeſty expreſſing ſo juſt a Confidence in your People: In whatever unjuſtifiable Exceſſes ſome few miſguided Perſons may, in this Inſtance, have been ſeduced to join, your Majeſty's Subjects in general are too ſenſible of what they owe both to your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Family, ever to be capable of approaching your Majeſty with any other Sentiments than thoſe of the moſt entire Reſpect and Affection; and they underſtand too well their own true Intereſts, to wiſh to looſen the Bands of Obedience to the Laws, and of due Subordination to lawful Authority. We are therefore fully perſuaded, that your Majeſty's People, as well as your Parliament, will reject, with Diſdain, every inſidious Suggeſtion of thoſe ill-deſigning Men, who are in Reality undermining the public Liberty, under the ſpecious Pretence of Zeal for its Preſervation; and that your

It is ſaid that the Middleſex Remonſtrance is intended to be preſented on Friday next.

The Military Gentlemen at Chatham, are indefatigable in their Endeavours to prevent a Remonſtrance from the County of Kent.

Yeſterday a grand Entertainment was given by the Lord Mayor, at the Manſion-Houſe, at which were preſent, a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry of March 25. We are informed, that if any more Notice ſhould be taken of Lord Chatham's Words in the Houſe of Peers, reſpecting the Diſmiſſion of the late Lord Chancellor (Camden) that thoſe Two Noblemen have ſo concerted Matters as to produce Proofs of the Truth of his Aſſertion.

It is reported, that in a Conference his Majeſty had lately with Lord Chatham, that Nobleman told him, that he ſhould think himſelf obliged at all Times to ſtand up in Defence of his M——'s juſt Rights; but

The following is an Extract of a Letter from a Paſſenger on board the Sally Brig, who, with the Captain, Mate, and two Boys, are now confined at the Groyne, under Preſence that they had been taking a Plan of the Harbour and Fortification of Vigo in Spain.

Coruna, Dec. 18, 1769.

"This comes to acquaint you, that after a long and troubleſome Journey of eight Days (from Vigo) we got here, and are impriſoned in an Iſland ſeparate from the Town, and have not ſpoke to the Conſul General, nor the Vice Conſul, nor any other Perſon; neither are they ſuffered to come and ſee us. We came here very wet, and were put in Priſon in that Condition; we had nothing to lie on but a hard Floor for three or four Days, and now have a Handful of Straw, which is as dear as Feathers in England. Theſe are the Hardſhips which we now undergo, and what we ſhall ſuffer more God only knows; I know not. My Service to the Conſul at Vigo. When you write to me tell the Majesty's Attention to maintain the Liberties of your Subjects inviolate, which you esteem your chief Glory, will, upon every Occasion, prove the sure Means of Strength to your Majesty, and secure to you that zealous and effectual Support, which none but a free People can bestow."

His MAJESTY'S most gracious ANSWER.

"My Lords and Gentlemen,

"I RETURN you my Thanks for this very loyal and dutiful Address. It is with great Satisfaction that I receive from my Parliament so grateful an Acknowledgement of my tender Regard for the Rights of my Subjects. Be assured, that I shall continue to adhere to the true Principles of our excellent Constitution; from which I cannot deviate, without justly forfeiting the Affections of a free People."

March 28. The Tweed Frigate, now lying at Chatham, is ordered to be got ready for the Earl of Dunmore, in order to carry his Lordship to his Government of New-York, for which he intends to embark in a few Days.

April 3. It is now said to be certain, that a Request for Diss——n will not take Place; but that to accomodate Matters, a Reconsideration of particular Resolves is determined to be complied with.

It is said that Overtures have been made to the Minority, which, it is said, is likely to bring about a Reconciliation.

It is confidently reported, that the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, who so greatly distinguished himself in the Course of last War, has accepted of a Commission in the French King's Service.

We hear the Marquis of Rockingham is to have a Conference with a great Personage in a few Days, on the Subject of some very important Matters, which, it is thought, will greatly contribute to reconcile the present party Dissentions.

It is now certain that a noble Person, for his late Conduct on his present political Principles, will be soon deprived of that Addition to his Titles which gives him the Military Government of a certain County.

It is also said, that the only Thing which has retarded the Execution of the above Measure, is a Dispute concerning his Successor; though we believe the M——r's Eye is more particularly pointed at a certain Object.

We hear from undoubted Authority, the Reason why so many Encampments are now forming round this Metropolis, is only intended as a preventative Measure, to preserve the Peace, if disturbed by an unruly Mob, on the Enlargement of a Popular Prisoner.

Saturday the Hon. Capt. Leveson Gower, Brother to Earl Gower, set out from Pall-Mall, for Portsmouth, in order to take on him the Command of one of the Men of War belonging to the Fleet which is shortly to sail from thence to the Mediterranean, to watch the Motions of the French and Spanish Fleets, and to see whether they will offer to obstruct the Passage of the Russian Fleet. In case of an Attempt of this Kind, it is thought the latter will be joined by the English Fleet, though the Consequence should be involving Great-Britain in a War.

They write from Leghorn, that Advice had just been received of a smart Engagement between Three Russian Men of War and Seven Tripolitan Corsairs, in which Four of the latter were sunk, one burnt, and one run on Shore.

April 6. On Saturday last the following Lines, wrote in large Characters, were seen stuck up against the Walls of St. James's Palace, viz.

A PROPHECY.

"A cold Winter;—a mild Spring;
"A bloody Summer;—a DEAD——."

The above being taken Notice of, it is said One Thousand Pounds Reward will be offered to find out the Author.

A Camp has been marked out (by some of the Artillery Officers from Woolwich) on Blackheath, for the following Regiments, who are to compose it as soon as the Weather will permit.—Cavalry, Sir John Mourdant's Dragoons, and General Elliot's light Dragoons. Foot Guards, First ditto of the Third Regiment of Artillery. Total, Four Squadrons, Six Battalions, Twelve Field Pieces, and Two Field Pieces to attend each Battalion.

Reports are now industriously circulating, that the American Affairs will, at last, be brought to a happy Period; but many Gentlemen, skilled in the Temper of the Colonies, greatly doubt it, for there was a Time, (say they) when the Minds of the Americans were susceptible of whatever Impression the Mother Country wished to communicate; there was a Time, when their Affections were unalienated; and there was a Time, when we were no less felt than acknowledged of the most eminent Importance to their Convenience and Welfare. But they had not then Manufactories established amongst them, they had not then discovered that Money was the Key to every Port, and the pass pour in all Climates.

That a War is both seriously talked of at Court, and expected will soon happen, is a Piece of Intelligence that may be depended on.

It is said a Gentleman has received some extraordinary Intelligence lately of some secret Preparations, and Intentions, respecting our old Friends, who never can be idle, and are now united, and formed into a Combination, not only to oppose our Trade, but are going on, in a most secret Manner, to destroy it. The Gentleman, we are told, has, in a most dutiful Manner addressed a great Personage that he may be heard before the Secretary of State, in humble Hope notice may be taken of it; but if left to chance, a Number of ill Consequences to this Nation will attend it, notwithstanding all French Evasions to the Contrary.

DUBLIN, March 18.

The Eight following Noblemen and Gentlemen have been struck of the List of Privy Counsellors here; The Earls of Shannon, Lanesborough, and Lourh; the Speaker of the House of Commons, Sir William Fownes, Bart. Sir William Mayne, Bart. Hercules Langford Rowley, Esq; and William Brownloy, Esq; William Brabaxon Ponsonby, Esq; Son of the Speaker, is dismissed from his Place of Examinator of the Customs. Lord Annaly, Lord Chief Justice of the King's Bench, has agreed to resign upon a Pension; and John Hely Hutchinson, Esq; (who is Alnager) is to succeed him, and to have a Peerage. Lord Dunkellyn is appointed Governor of the County of Galway.

BOSTON, May 14.

Letters from New-York and Philadelphia intimating, that it has been reported in those Capitals, the Merchants of this Town determined to break through their Agreement and import Fall Goods, notwithstanding the continuance of the Tea Duty; we can assure the Public that nothing can be further from Truth, nor has the Spirit of the Trade at any Time appeared more determined. The Bulk of the Goods which came contrary to Agreement, though shipped by Persons who had not signed, are now put on board the Lydia, Capt. Scott, and do not fill the Hold by a Fourth Part. No one besides the old Importers has yet had the Stupidity to act so much in Opposition, to the Sense of their Country as to persist in Violation, of its unanimous Resolution, we believe that our Trade with Great-Britain will not be open 'til the whole of the late Revenue-Acts are repealed.

NEW-YORK, May 21.

The following is the Postscript of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to his Friend in this City, dated 26th of March.

"I had forgot, when I concluded this Letter, to tell you that large Quantities of Goods have been lately shipped, and are now daily shipping for Virginia, Maryland, Rhode-Island, Boston, and Montreal, which will doubtless circulate all through the Colonies; the greatest Part of what are shipped, and shipping, are by Strangers unaccustomed to the Trade, so that unless the old Traders should order Goods, the Trade will of Course circulate through a new Channel.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.

Extract of a Letter from London, brought by Capt. Carr.

"The Conversation now is, that it is under the Contemplation of the Treasury to come into an Accomodation with the East-India Company, as to the Duty on Tea, in the following Manner.

"It is proposed to repeal the Statute, which allows a Drawback of Sevenpence Halfpenny per Pound on Tea shipped to North-America; and to repeal the Act, which imposes a Duty of Threepence in the Pound, payable in America; by which, the Revenue will be benefited Fourpence Halfpenny in the Pound, and a commercial Expedient be adopted for the total Repeal of the American Revenue-Act."

Baltimore-Town, May 28, 1770.

ON Thurſday the 24th Inſt. arrived here the Ship Cambridge, Robert Hutton, Maſter, from Liverpool, with a Cargo of ſundry European and Eaſt-India Goods on board, to the Amount of £. 2360 : 13 : 7 Sterling, the Property of Mr. James Ward, of Liverpool, who came Paſſenger in ſaid Ship.——Mr. Ward immediately on his Arrival, deſired a Meeting of the Committee of Inſpection, to enquire into the Propriety of the Importation—They accordingly met the ſame Day, and after examining Invoices, &c. reported to a general Meeting of the Merchants, held the 25th, that Goods in the ſaid Cargo, to the Amount of £. 1292 : 12 : 3½ Sterling, appeared contrary to the general Aſſociation of this Province.——A Chairman being choſe, the following Queſtions were put, viz.

1ſt, Whether the Cargo imported by Mr. Ward, is agreeable to the Aſſociation or not? Reſolved unanimouſly in the Negative.

2d, Whether ſuch Goods that are allowed to be imported under the Aſſociation, and are not mixed and blended with thoſe contrary to it, ſhall be landed or not? Reſolved in the Affirmative.

3d, Whether ſuch of the above Goods that are contrary to the Aſſociation, ſhall be landed and ſtored or not? Reſolved in the Negative.

With this Determination Mr. Ward willingly acquieſced, and as he found it would not anſwer the Purpoſe to land only the Goods allowed by the Aſſociation, and packed ſeparately, choſe to carry the whole out of the Province. The Ship Cambridge accordingly ſailed from Baltimore the 26th, as it is ſuppoſed for Virginia.

By the above Scheme there are not Two and an Half Blanks to a Prize, and the Profits retained are Thirty per Cent. on the whole. The Drawing will begin at Queen-Anne Town as soon as the Tickets are disposed of, (previous Notice of which will be given in the Maryland Gazette) in Presence of Four of the Managers at least, and as many of the Adventurers as shall think proper to attend. The Drawing, it is hoped, will be in Three Months at farthest, as a great Number of the Tickets are all ready engaged.

The Managers are, Messieurs Robert Tyler, Richard Ducket, jun. Edward Hall, of Henry, Benjamin Hall, of Benjamin, Thomas Boyd, Thomas Watkins, Stephen Watkins, Thomas Harwood, jun, and William T. Wootton, who are to give Bond and be upon Oath for the faithful Discharge of their Trust.

A List of the Prizes to be published in the Maryland Gazette, as soon as the Drawing is finished, and the Prizes to be paid off without any Deduction. Prizes not demanded within Six Months from the Publication aforesaid, to be deemed as generously given for the Use intended, and applied accordingly.

Any Money passing current in this Province, to be received in the Sale of the Tickets, and the same to be accepted in Payment of the Prizes drawn by the fortunate Adventurers.
